

Trainings ▾

Maintenance Check

Spline Driven

No routine maintenance is necessary.

Shaft sealing is by mechanical seal, which does not require maintenance. Periodic checks must be made to be sure that the seal is not leaking. If leakage does occur, it will be observed in the opening between the bearing housing and pump casing.